We truſt, under the Auſpices of your Majeſty's continued Exertions for the Welfare and Happineſs of your People, that the Trade and Manufactures of the Kingdom will be ſpeedily reſtored, and that the National Commerce will be extended throughout the Globe.

Permit us further with Humility to aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall conſtantly endeavour to ſupport the Dignity of your Crown, and the Tranquillity of your Majeſty's Reign, by exerting ourſelves within the Precincts of our Juriſdiction in the Suppreſſion of Vice, and encouraging good Order, amongſt your Majeſty's Subjects.

Given under the Common Seal of our Corporation, this Third Day of April, in the Twenty-third Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

Cumberland Houſe, April 7.

His Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland will have a Levee on Monday next, the 14th Inſtant, at Two o'Clock.

Whitehall, April 12.

Extracts of Letters from Lieutenant-General Sir Eyre Coote, K. B. dated Madras the 31ſt of Auguſt and 25th of Septemper, 1782, received at the Office of His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, on the 7th of April, 1783.

WHILST I was ſtraining every Nerve in advancing the Army to the Neighbourhood of Chingleput, to counteract the Views of Hyder and the French, I anxiouſly looked to the Reſult of my Reference to the Governor General, and to the Arrival of their Orders in conſequence, as a Period which would undoubtedly reſtore to me that enable me to direct ſtrong Troops, which would might tend equally to facilitate my own Movements, and diſtract the Deſigns of our Enemies: But moſt unfortunately on the 18th of February, long before any Anſwer could come from Bengal, Colonel Brathwaite was attacked by Hyder Ally's Son Tippo Saib, and Monſ. Lally, near the Banks of the Colleroon, and totally defeated. His whole Detachment, conſiſting of about 2000 Infantry, 250 Cavalry, 18 Officers, and a Field Train of 13 Pieces, were either captured or deſtroyed.

The French being free from any Apprehenſions of a Check from our Southern Forces, and covered by the Army of Hyder Ally to the Northward, which ſecured them from all ſudden Attack by my Army, proceeded in perfect Security againſt Cuddalore, which being incapable of holding out for any length of Time, was, on the 6th of April, ſurrendered to the French Forces under Monſ. Duchemin, on Terms of Capitulation, which I have the Honour to incloſe.

To his Excellency Sir Eyre Coote, K. B. Lieutenant-General and Commander in Chief in India.

SIR,

IT gives me much Concern to inform you, that this Garriſon ſurrendered to the French Arms on the 4th Inſtant in the Morning. A Copy of the Capitulation I have now the Honor of forwarding.

I flatter myſelf your Excellency will excuſe me for not ſending it ſooner, as I have been prevented by a Multiplicity of Buſineſs, owing to conſtant Applications from the Gentlemen in Charge of the French Officers, relative to the delivering over the Stores, &c. of this Garriſon.

I have the Honor to be,
With the greateſt Reſpect,
Your Excellency's very obedient and moſt humble Servant,
(Signed) James Hughes.

Cuddalore, April 6, 1782.

SIR,

THE French General, being deſirous of having as little Bloodſhed as poſſible, has ſent me to aform you, that the Nabob's Troops having joined his Army, if you do not immediately ſurrender, i will be out of his Power to prevent the plundering of the Fort, being promiſed to the European and Black Troops if they attack it.

In Conſequence of which he propoſes Articles of Capitulation, ſuch as, from your Situation, you have Reaſon to expect; wiſhing to convince the Engliſh, that it is only in War we look on you as Enemies; and being ſent for this Purpoſe by Monſ Duchemin, General of the French Army, I ſign theſe his firſt Propoſals, according to the Power he has inveſted me with.

(Signed) Le Vte. de Houdetot.

N. B. The above is a Tranſlation of a Copy from the Original.

Articles of Capitulation drawn up between his Excellency Monſ. Pierre Duchemin, Marſhal of the Camps and Army of the King of France, and Commandant of the Troops of his Majeſty in India, on one Side, and Captain James Hughes, Commandant of the Garriſon of Cuddalore, on the other.

THE Gates ſhall be delivered up To-morrow, the 4th of April, 1782, between the Hours of Eight and Nine in the Morning.

Agreed.

The French Flag ſhall be kept flying till that Time on the Ramparts, and all Hoſtilities ſhall be ſuſpended; Captain Hughes giving his Word, that nothing ſhall go out of the Place, either by Land or Sea; and all that does go out ſhall be deemed an Infringement on the Articles of Capitulation, as it muſt either belong to the King or Company, ſince the Property of Officers and Inhabitants are inſured to them.

Agreed.

The Garriſon ſhall remain Priſoners of War; the European Officers and Troops ſhall be ſent to Madras on their Parole, to be exchanged for the like Number and Rank of French Officers and Troops.

Agreed.

Private Property ſhall be ſecured; but all that belongs to the King and Company ſhall be given over with the utmoſt Exactneſs, and regiſtred by the French Commiſſary ſent for that Purpoſe; and the leaſt Infidelity ſhall be deemed an Infringement on the Articles of Capitulation.

Agreed.

The Garriſon ſhall march out with the Honors of War, and depoſit their Arms on the Glacie, without being damaged.

Agreed.

The Garriſon ſhall be provided with Proviſions and a Paſſage by Sea to Madras, the Civil as well as the Military.

Agreed.

Thoſe who do not chooſe to remain under the French Government will have Paſſports and Eſcorts to Madras; thoſe that do ſhall, at the Expiration of Three Months, take Oaths of Allegiance to his Moſt Chriſtian Majeſty.

Agreed.

The Liberty of Religion is granted in full.

Agreed.

The Fort being delivered up, all private Property belonging to the Engliſh, whether within or without it, ſhall be ſecured to them.

Agreed.

The Whole is thoroughly underſtood, and agreed to, upon the ſtricteſt Honor.

April 3, 1782. Signed for the French General,
Le Vicomte de Houdetot.

(Signed) Duchemin.
(Signed) James Hughes, Captain Commandant of Cuddalore.

N. B. The above is a Tranſlation of a Copy from the Original Articles of Capitulation.

James Hughes,
Captain Commandant.

On the 12th, I received Intelligence of the Enemy having commenced the Siege of Permacoli. And I find that Garriſon capitulated on the 17th.

I had no Doubt of the Enemy's forming Deſigns upon Vandiwaſh; indeed my Intelligence gave me

Reaſon to believe, that the French and Hyder would march immediately to attack it: I therefore moved the Army towards it with all poſſible Diſpatch, in full Perſuaſion that our Enemies would have met me there, and tried a deciſive Action: But I arrived there without receiving the ſmalleſt Oppoſition; apprehending, however, leſt the Enemy might be in Doubt about my Deſire of bringing them to Action, and convinced that they would not ſeek for me in the Neighbourhood of Vandiwaſh, where I could receive them to ſo great Advantage, I determined to advance towards them. I accordingly made Two Marches in the direct Road to the Ground, on which we had obſerved them, from the Hill of Vandiwaſh, to be encamped; but on my Approach they fell back, and both by my Intelligence, and by what I could diſcover from the Heights in the Neighbourhood of our Camp, they took up their Station on the Red Hills. This was a Poſition in itſelf ſo ſtrong, and could, by an Army of ſuch Magnitude as Hyder's, ſupported by an European Force far exceeding the Numbers in my Army, be occupied to ſo great Advantage, that I judged it expedient to lay my Intelligence and Sentiments before the Two next Officers in Command, Major-General Stuart and Colonel Lang, that I might have the Benefit of their Opinions on a Matter of ſuch momentous Importance, and on the Iſſue of which depended the Whole of the Britiſh Intereſts in India.

Upon a Reference to the Council of War, which was held on this Occaſion, the Idea I ſuggeſted of drawing the Enemy from their ſtrong Poſt, by moving in a Direction, which would effectually check Hyder's Supplies, and alarm him for the the Safety of his Grand Magazine of Arnee, was unanimouſly approved.

In Conformity to that Plan, we accordingly marched on the 30th, and, on the 1ſt of June, encamped at the Diſtance of about Five Miles from Arnee. That Day I received Intelligence that Hyder, on hearing of the Route we had taken, marched immediately, and that the Advance of his Army had arrived the preceding Evening at Deſſoor, diſtant from us about Twenty-five Miles, and in the high Road towards us. I was thereby ſatisfied, that the Effect I had in View had taken Place, and ordered a proper Place to be reconnoitred for poſting the Baggage, in caſe I ſhould either have found it adviſeable to go and meet the Enemy, or to receive them on the Ground I had occupied. In the Middle of the Night of the 1ſt, or rather early in Morning of the 2d, Intelligence was brought me, that Hyder had come to Chittiput, diſtant from us about Eleven Miles. The Army was then under Orders of March to proceed nearer Arnee, which, I was encouraged to hope, might prove an eaſy Acquiſition, and which, by the large Stock of Proviſions it contained, added to the extreme Fitneſs of its Situation, opened to us no leſs a Proſpect than the total Expulſion of the Enemy from the Carnatic. In my then Poſition, with Hyder's Army on the one Side, and an Object of ſuch Magnitude on the other, it became a Point of Deliberation, which was the moſt eligible Line of Conduct to be adopted: To perſevere in my original Intention of threatening Arnee, (which Hyder had moſt undoubtedly came to cover) and thereby bring on an Action, or to advance and engage the Enemy, I preferred the former, as promiſed the moſt certain Iſſue, upon the Mind of Hyder, whoſe ſole View evidently was to ſave his Grand Magazine. It was equal to him, whether he accompliſhed that, by diverting our Attention from it, or by giving us Battle. But it is reaſonable to imagine, that if he ſucceeded on the former Grounds, he would hardly, after having ſuffered Four Defeats, put any Thing to Riſk on the latter. We accordingly therefore commenced our March towards Arnee, contiguous to which the Advance of our Army had arrived, and we had begun to mark out the Ground for our Encampment, when a diſtant Cannonade opened on our Rear, and which was the firſt Annunciation I had of Hyder's having approached ſo near us, in Force. His coming upon us, thus ſuddenly, proceeds from his being able to cover the March of his Line of Infantry, by his large Bodies of Horſe, and which having generally been the Companions of our Movements, during the whole of the War, were never to be conſidered as any poſitive Proof of his Army being at Hand.

Every Diſpatch was uſed in making the neceſſary Diſpoſitions for repelling the Attack, and coming to Action. Our Line was then in a low Situation, with high and commanding Ground all round, which as the Enemy had got Poſſeſſion of, our different Manœuvres were performed under every Diſadvantage, and expoſed to a heavy though diſtant Cannonade. It was not until near Mid-day that we had reduced the Enemy's various Attacks into one ſettled Point, ſo as to advance upon them with Effect, and with a Proſpect of Advantage; but ſo ſoon as that was accompliſhed, we puſhed on and they gave Way: We purſued them till the Evening was far advanced, taking from them in their Retreat One Gun, Five Tumbrils, and Two Carts loaded with Ammunition.

I remained at this advanced Station to the laſt Moment the State of my Proviſions would admit of; and when obliged to fall back for my Supplies, I endeavoured to do it with all the Credit poſſible, by again ſeeking for Hyder, who by my Intelligence, had encamped with his Army contiguous to a Road by which we might march. He retreated before me with Precipitation, although in Poſſeſſion of Ground which he could have diſputed our approach towards with great Advantage. We purſued our March the ſucceeding Day, by the ſame Road on which he had retreated, but found that he had turned off and croſſed the Country towards Arnee. On the 8th of June, when encamped in the Neighbourhood of Trivatore, and where we had halted a Day to refreſh both the Troops and the Cattle, of which they ſtood greatly in need, having ſuffered ſeverely both by Sickneſs and Fatigue, our Grand Guard was moſt unfortunately drawn into an Ambuſcade compoſed of about Six Thouſand of Hyder's choſen Horſe, and totally cut off before any Support could be afforded.

It is with Pleaſure I acquaint you, that the Eſtabliſhment of Peace with the Mahrattas is in the faireſt Way towards being happily accompliſhed, as, on the 17th of May laſt, Articles of a Treaty of Peace, and perpetual Friendſhip and Alliance, between the Engliſh and the Mahrattas, were agreed to and executed by Mahdeo Scindia, on the Part of the latter, and by Mr. David Anderſon, (depured by the Governor General and Council) on the Part of the former, ſubject however to the Approval and Ratification of their reſpective Governments, before they ſhould become final. In as far as depends upon us I believe every Part has been confirmed; but as yet I have not heard of the Conditions, having received the Seal and Signature of the Peſhwa, and the Atteſtations of the Dependent Members of the Poona State.

The only important Movement of the Army, which happened between the Action of the 2d of June until this preſent Time, was the Relief of the Garriſon of Villore, which was performed between the 7th and 21ſt of Auguſt; the Army having marched in that Period near 200 Miles, and threw into the Place Proviſions ſufficient to maintain the Garriſon to the 1ſt of March next.

I am concerned to acquaint your Lordſhips with the Fall of Trincomale, which by our Intelligence was ſurrendered to the French Force under Monſieur Suffrein on the 31ſt ult. by Capitulation. My Orders were to defend it to the laſt. Our Squadron had an Action with the French Squadron off the Place on the 3d Inſtant, in which the laſt ſuffered moſt; but our Fleet found it neceſſary to come to theſe Roads, where it arrived the 9th Inſtant, and is now refitting, and intends proceeding to Bombay the Middle of next Month. The Minerva Store Ship, and the Major and Nottingham Indiamen belonging to Sir Richard Bickerton's Fleet, are arrived; the two latter having on board Lieutenant Colonel Adams, with two Companies of His Majeſty's 101ſt Regiment, and Colonel Reimbold, with two Companies of His Majeſty's Electoral Troops. They have all of them arrived extremely healthy, and have ſuffered very little indeed by the Voyage.

My

My preſent weak State will not allow of my entering into a particular Detail of the late March of the Army towards Cuddalore, and its Return, together with the other Occurrences which have ſince happened.

Major General Sir Hector Munro has reſigned the Service, and returns to Europe in the Myrtle Tranſport, which ſails in a few Dsys. Major General Stuart, who has been conſtantly in the Field during the whole of this Year's Campaign, will in Conſequence ſucceed to the Chief Command of the Company's Troops on this Eſtabliſhment. He has been in Command of the Army ever ſince my Illneſs, in the Conduct of which he has ſhewn the moſt indefatigable Activity, in a Manner highly to his own Honour, and much to my Satisfaction.

Whitehall, April 12, 1783.

WHereas it has been humbly repreſented to the King, That Two Barns, ſtanding on the Farm of John Dines, in the Pariſh of King's Walden in the County of Hertford, were, in the Night of Wedneſday the 2d Day of this inſtant April, maliciouſly ſet on Fire and burnt down, by ſome Perſon or Perſons unknown:

His Majeſty, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſon or Perſons concerned in ſetting Fire to the ſaid Barns, is hereby pleaſed to promiſe His Moſt Gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Perſon who actually ſet Fire thereto) who ſhall diſcover his, her, or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, ſo that he, ſhe, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

NORTH.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby promiſed to any Accomplice, (except as before excepted) or other Perſon making ſuch Diſcovery as aforeſaid; ſuch Reward to be paid by the ſaid John Dines, of King's Walden aforeſaid, or by Mr. Benjamin Rooke, of Hertford, on Conviction of the Offender or Offenders, over and beſide any other Reward the Party may be entitled to by any Act of Parliament, or any Reward offered by any Aſſociation.

John Dines.

Whitehall, April 1, 1783.

WHereas it has been humbly repreſented to the King, That on Sunday Night, the 30th of March laſt, St. Paul's Cathedral Church, in the City of London, was ſacrilegiouſly broken open, and a Silver Verge, weighing about Thirty Ounces, and the Sum of Five Pounds Fifteen Shillings and Seven Pence, Sacrament Money, ſtolen out of the Dean's Veſtry, by ſome evil-diſpoſed Perſon or Perſons unknown:

His Majeſty, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſon or Perſons concerned in the ſaid Felony and Sacrilege, is hereby pleaſed to promiſe His moſt Gracious Pardon to any one of them, who ſhall diſcover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, ſo that he, ſhe, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SYDNEY.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any Perſon making ſuch Diſcovery as above-mentioned, to be paid upon the Conviction of any one or more of the ſaid Offenders, by Robert Comyn, Eſq; at the Chapter-houſe in St. Paul's Church-yard.

Rob. Comyn.
